Correspondence:

Sarah Ayden has resigned from the first aid squad due to a work conflict and not being in the area.

Officer's Report:

Top five responders were Jim, Craig, Denise, Joseph and Chuck. Rig duty must be done at least once a week. If not done correctly, will be re-assigned the rig for a following month. Thank you to those who helped with the Fireworks parking. We earned $2,693.08 in donations, thank you to Mike S for organizing it. Dinner that night was donated by the CN business Association as a thank you for helping. Core13 is this upcoming august. Only 8 seats are filled, 2 still available if anybody wants to take it. The CN polo match is September 12, 2021 at 11:30a-4:30p. We need volunteers to help with parking like with the fireworks parking. The squad will be paid for the help. CDC is once again recommending that masks be worn on calls if you're interacting with patients and in hospitals. Greg is available to talk to about the fatal motor vehicle crash on route 18 after the meeting. If you require a town ID, see greg.
